SENATOR STEWART BITTERLY ATTACKS MAJOR POWELL.

SHERMAN AND ALLISON'S AMBITIONS.

The Former Does Not Like the Latter's Aspirations.

THE OHIO SENATOR GETS A SET-BACK.

Tale of an Amendment---Reed's Restaurant Scheme--- A Sample of Harrison's Appointees.

In the Senate to day Mr. Stewart, rising to a question of privilege, had read an article from a Washington paper containing a statement by Major Powell in reference to a resolution recently offered by Mr. Stewert, as to the division of $200,000 appropriated for irrigation purposes to the use of the Geological

Mr. Stewart sketched an outline of what had been done recently in the work of stimulating irrigation in the far West and of the appropriation made for that purpose.

Major Powell, he sald, had used more than half of the appropriation in expensive surveys of no practical use for the object in view; and he inti-mated that Major Powell had enormous power in both Houses from his giving employment to a lot of young men, the sons and relatives of members of Congress and that he kept an enormous lobby in Washington to control the action of Congress. He characterized the Bu-reau of Geology and Mineralogy as a mass of humbug and foolishness— "A GREAT LYING-IN HOSPITAL FOR LAME DUCKS." The only lobby on the subject was that maintained by Major Powell, who boasted of his being able to control Con-gress, and who intimated by his dic-tatorial manner his subordinates. He protested against any man attempting to run the West in that way.

Mr. Gorman defended Major Powell.

The Senate agreed that when it adjours to day it be until Monday.

Routine business having been transacted, the Senate resumed consideration of the "original package" bill.

The House to-day considered public building bills at the usual rate-two Republican to one Democratic building.

In the House.

SHERMAN AND ALLISON. THEIR BIVAL AMBITIONS A REASON FOR

THE PORMER'S ACTION. An additional reason for Senator Sherman's course in the Finance Committee is found in the fact that, not only is he annoyed by the Napoleon business in politics, but he is made very weary by the persistent Presidential aspirations by Mr. Allison, the smooth statesman from Iowa. It came to Mr. Sherman's ears that it was contemplated to refer the McKinley bill to a sub-committee composed of Messrs.
Allison and Aldrich, who had the Mills bill in charge at the last Congress. The dickey bird at the same time whispered in the weary ear of the Ohloan that the firm of A. & A. proposed simply to report back their former bill as a substitute for the McKinley bill. Whatever gratification this might have afforded Mr. Sherman as a quencher on McKinley was lost in the contemplation of the boom it would give Allison. Hence the little arrange ment he made with his friends the enemy. Mr. Sherman was opposed to the public hearings and the reopening of the questions involved, but the Demo-erats stood firm and Mr. Sherman yielded, in order to gain his main point. The Republicans are far from happy at the outlook for their effort "to revise" the tariff. Doubt and dissension prevail in their ranks, and their leaders are divided by rival ambitions and personal jealousies

THE TALE OF AN AMENDMENT. WHY MR. SHERMAN WANTED TWO PEN-

SION DISTRICTS IN ORIO, About three weeks ago when the Pension bill was up in the Senate Mr. Sherman offered an amendment to divide Oblo into two pension districts. An acrimonious debate arose, in which Mr. Sherman was badgered into losing his ley temper. Instruations concerning his motives were indulged in to an extent altogether beyond the bounds of Senatorial courtesy. However the amendment was carried, and the bill went into conference. There the Sher man amendment was rejected and another reported to authorize the pension agent at Columbus to appoint a deputy to sign his name to official checks. This shut off the plea that the office was too hig for one man to fill, ecause he couldn't sign all the checks in a month. Sherman was much chagrined at this outcome of his little game.

The nature of this game has just transpired definitely. It seems that one of Mr. Sherman's chief fence-viewers was Captain Cole, who was a candidate for pension agent. There was another Eichmond in the field in the person of General John C. Mitch ell, who has the distinguished bonor and great good fortune to be the happy husband of the accomplished alone of the eminent chicken fancier of The ex President said Mitchell's appointment was the only favor he would ask at the hands of this Administration. General Mitchell was Still wanting to do something for Captain Cole, who was far from being a jolly old soul at this time, Mr. Sherman introduced his amendment, with the result as above related. All these things bend to embitter the veterau, and day by day bis face becomes more set and grim and his smile more surfante.

OPERER REED'S RESTAURANT BULE ONLY ADOPTS THE BOSTON PLAN. Speaker Reed's order concerning the selling of liquors in the House restanrant was not so sweeping as it was thought to be yesterday. In fact the Speaker's order simply sets up the Boston plan of sitting down to drink. In that position everything goes. The bar is done away with, however, and

SHERMAN SET BACK.

BIS PLAN CONCERNING THE M'RINLEY BILL REVERSED. The Senate Finance Committee met this morning and began work on the McKinley Tariff bill. If they proceeded in the usual routine nanner, beginning with the chemical hedure. Just before adjournment Mr. Hiscock moved that a sub-committee of each side be appointed to prepare schedules for argument in the Senate. It was adopted, only Sherman and Vance opposing it.

Mr. Sherman is more than ever convinced now of the truth of Burns' as-sertion, that "the best-laid plans of men and mice gang aft aglee."

MEN OF THE IRON RAIL

Second Day's Session of the State Railread Commissioners.

Construction Generally Discussed. Action Should Have Reen Taken Before-Reasonable Rates.

The second day's session of the conference of State Railroad Commissioners and Interstate Commerce Commission was called to order in the Sun Building, at 10:30 o'clock this morning, by the Hon Thomas M. Cooley.

Upon the call of subjects for consideration, Mr. Woodruff of Connecticut, in reference to "Railway Construc-tion," sald that it seemed to him that was a matter in which the States ought to take action, and that a great many vils of the past would have been obvi ated had such action been taken. He referred to both the physical and financial aspects of the question and thought that State and Federal regulations should be provided.

Mr. Crocker of Massachusetts suggested that the question as to uni-formity in legislation, regarding railway construction, should be referred to a committee, to report at the next annual convention. Chairman Cooley appointed the following committee: Messrs. Crocker, Shorter, Pingree, Rich, Garber and Woodruff. The same committee will have the subject before them of "State Railroads" for consider-

Judge Fleming offered a resolution that a committee be appointed on "Reasonable Rates," to report at the next annual convention.

Mr. Williams of Minnesota asked,

What is the way out of this dilemma, and must a right of appeal be given? He thought that a right of appeal should not be guaranteed.

Mr. Smith of Iowa said: Maximum rates are always prima facie evidence of reasonable rates. A court cannot fix a rate, but it can determine whether or not a rate is unnecessarily high or un-necessarily low. Property should not be taken without adequate compensa-

Mr. Seymour of Connecticut subnitted the report of the committee on rallway accounting, suggesting changes in the personnel of rallway officials, that the words "general balance sheet" be change to "income account," that the words "market price of stocks" be eliminated, etc., etc.

The Chair appointed as the committee, Judge Flemming, Kentucky, W. McLauren of Mississippi, D. N. Mortland, Maine, J. B. Breathill, Missouri, John King, South Dakota. The next place of meeting was left to the discretion of the committe. the discretion of the committe. After the session at 2:30 o'clock this after soon the convention finally adjourned.

WASHINGTON LOSES AGAIN

And Drops a Peg Lower in the Race. McMillan Again in the Ring. Is Sullivan Afraid?

FOUL PLYS AND PAIR HITS PICKED UP

BERE AND THERE. The Washington Club dropped another peg in its race for the pennant yesterday, and for the third time since the trip began was whitewashed by a score of 6 to 0. As usual, It was the same old story and the same old cause weak hitting—only one hit being made by Sullivan's men. Underwood, the new pitcher from Kansas City, was tried, and did fairly well, only ten hits being made off his delivery, and these being fairly well scattered. Had the Washingtons been able to have done any batting at all they might have won, but the men have evidently forgotten how to handle bats, and so we lost.

To day the same clubs play again, unless the rain which providentially came down at the close of the eighth inning yesterday continues to day to pre Baltimore and New Haven both won, and in consequence their positions are not changed, the Connecticut team still leading by a very narrow margin.

PROVED WELCOME NEWS,

The news published exclusively in sterday's Curric, that Daniels, late of the Pittsburg team, had been secured by the Washington management, proved welcome news to the majority of baseball enthusiasts in this city who dld not appreciate the beauties of the toboggan slide to which the home team was introduced in New Haven some days ago, Daniels was secured for the Pittsburgs by Sullivan, and many a time Ted has lamented exceedingly that he could not get him for Washington. He proved that Sullivan's estimate of his ability was by no means overrated, and pitched excellent ball for the League team. But, like all young players who make a success, he incurred the enmity of the older members of the team, and Man ager Hecker finally released him. His loss is our gain. Daniels will probably make his debut in one of the games at Worcester to morrow, and that he will give a good account of himself is most a foregone conclusion. W four pitchers the club is sufficiently strengthened now to expect better results during the remainder of the trip. LEAGUE VS. BROTHERBOOD, The League and Brotherhood teams are still struggling over that old bone of contention, who are the people. At the present writing it looks very much as if the older organization had the call. It has been drawing larger crowds every day than the Brotherhood teams, and is under so much less expense that it can afford to stand the decreased attendance from last year Johnny Ward, in an open letter in the New York San, pro-tests very earnestly that the Players' League is all right and will come out on top of the heap,

Just at present a letter received from a well-known Brotherhood player, written in confidence, is a more correct summary of the situation than all the otterings of Ward and his hired satel-

"We are in a hole. The attendance isn't half what it's reported to be, and I don't know what we are going to do. We are not controlled at all and-and-and two or three others drink as they in the morning. I'm sorry I ever went into this thing and I wish I was with the old League. I don't believe we will last the season out, and maybe not a month longer. Ward and two or three others are fixed, but what are we poor devils going to do? The backers are dead sore putting up money, and I'm told they will not do it any longer. If it rains Decoration Day look out for a crash. Your advice, after all, was the best, and I'm sorry I didn't follow it." Comment is unnecessary.

AT THE RING SIDE.

WEN WHO KNOCK EACH OTHER OUT FOR A LIVELINCOD.

This has been a lively week among the short-haired fraternity of this city. The McCaffrey combination at Kernan's last week roused up the local fighters and there has been considerable talk and an unusually large number of good bouts there. Billy Young and Georgie Hagan had an interesting set to on Tuesday night and so did McCaffrey and Ed. Heach, although the latter was knocked out in the second round.

When McCaffrey squarred off at Roach it reminded the writer of a simifar scene which occurred at Chester Park, Cincinnati, five years ago, when Mac met the invincible John L. Sullivan. The writer had not seen him since that time, but there was no change apparently in the sleek, well proportioned athlete, whom many thought was the citual of the Boston man. They fought ten rounds and as the end Mac wanted to continue, but Sullivan would not agree to it. The referce shipped off to Columbus or Toledo, and then, after forly eight hours' deliberation, announced that Sullivan had won the fight. It created an immense furose at the time, and the followers of Mc-Caffrey were loud in their declarations that he was a better man than Sullivan. Mac challenged Sullivan, but they never mut in the ring again. McCuffrey's defeat by Corbett a few mouths ago settled him as a tighter, and in addition to this I am told his wind is cone. Talking with filly McMillan, the other night, he announced his determination to remain in the ring. He had previously given out the information that he was done with fighting, but scens now that he will not desert the squared circle. And it would not be a surprise to see a challenge from him in a few days directed at Northodge. If it is accepted, which is doubtful, he cought to win, for he is a plucky, hard dighter, a glutton for panishment, and only less the other tight through a duke. Birly Naily is anximostly tooking far a tight, but it is not dische well see
